

Maplewood Career Center
Articulation Agreements
(Post Graduate Credit)

University of Northwestern Ohio:

Auto Service Technology - may receive 12 credit hours
Power Equipment Mechanics - may receive 12 credit hours

Stark State College of Technology:

Auto Service Technology - may receive 6 credit hours
Robotics and Computer Technology - may receive 12 credit hours
Computer-Aided Engineering - may receive 7 credit hours
Applied Engineering and Machining - may receive 8 credit hours
Information Technology – may receive 17 credit hours
Graphic Communications – may receive 12 credit hours

Ohio Technical College:

Auto Service Technology - may receive up to 4 courses if taken within the 1st year after graduation
Power Equipment Mechanics - may receive up to 4 courses if taken within the 1st year after graduation
Auto Collision Technology - may receive up to 4 courses if taken within the 1st year after graduation

Vatterott College:

Electricity - 48 quarter hours

Virginia Marti College:

Graphic Communications – may test out of up to 30 credits

Hocking College:

Culinary Arts – may receive up to 16 credits in Culinary Arts
Culinary Arts – may receive up to 7 credits in Hotel and Restaurant Management
Cosmetology – may receive up to 9 credits

Some articulation credits are contingent upon the student's lab grade and passage of individual college tests.

College Tech Prep Programs:

The following programs have Tech Prep agreements with the East Central Regional Center (Kent State, University of Akron, Youngstown State, and Stark State) and students can earn credits by successfully completing their Maplewood program, graduating with a specified GPA, and passing additional testing requirements:

Administrative & Medical Office Technology	Dental Assisting
Auto Collision Technology	Electricity
Auto Service Technology	Robotics and Computer Technology
Business Management	Graphic Communications
Hospitality Service Careers	Information Technology
Early Childhood Education	Masonry
Carpentry	Medical Assisting
Computer Aided Engineering	Power Equipment Mechanics
Cosmetology	Applied Engineering and Machining
Criminal Justice	Welding
Culinary Arts

The following program has a Tech Prep agreement with Wilmington College and students can earn credits by successfully completing their Maplewood program and graduating high school with at least a 2.40 GPA:

Mechanical Groundskeeping and Construction