

Foster PEM Junior Lab Off-Site Learning Packet Day 2

Instructor Wally Foster
Program/Class: PEM

Date:
Periods: 1-4

Small Engine Mechanic

State Indicator/Competency:

Competency 1.1: Explore career pathways in transportation systems.

1.1.5 Identify the education and licensing requirements needed for a career in transportation systems.

Competency 1.2: Explore professional development and career advancement opportunities for a transportation professional.

Instructional Objective(s):

- 1) The students will be able to write an essay about the Small engine repair mechanic with 100% accuracy to include the following topics:
 - a) What Small Engine Mechanics Do
 - b) Work Environment
 - c) Pay
 - d) Job Outlook
 - e) Similar Occupations
 - f) Duties
 - g) Work Schedules
 - h) Education
 - i) Other Experience
 - j) Advancement
 - k) Important Qualities
- 1) Do you believe this is the profession you would enjoy and why?

Materials:

1. Small Engine Mechanic: Occupational Handbook: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics Handout

<http://www.bls.gov/ooh/installation-maintenance-and-repair/small-engine-mechanics.htm>

Method of Instruction:

- 1) Independent Study

Activities:

- 1) The student will investigate the Small Engine Mechanic profession and then in their own words will write an essay.

Closure:

- 1) Do you believe this is the profession you would enjoy and why?

Assessment:

- 10 Point Homework Assignment

Assignment:

The student will investigate the Small Engine Service Technician profession and then in their own words will write an essay explaining advantages and disadvantages to this career.

Essay is to be typed using New Times Roman font 14 and double line spacing. To be submitted within 2 school days of the calamity day.